JAYCEES TO SPONSOR JUNIOR MISS PAGEANT

An official franchised Junior Miss Pageant will be conducted and sponsored next month by the Bay St. Louis Jaycees and Jayettes, the group announced this week.

The pageant is an official preliminary to the National Junior Miss Pageant held in Mobile, Ala., in the spring.

The main difference in the Junior Miss Pageant and the Miss Bay St. Louis Pageant, an official preliminary to the Miss America, is that swimsuits are out in the Junior Miss and scholastics are in. A group appearance in sports wear used in place of individual swimsuit modeling. The evening gown and talent phases remain the same. School grades and activities are important in selecting an ideal person.

The object of the Junior Miss program is to find and reward a girl with personality, poise, character, appearance, talent and knowledge.

Jaycees president Lee Choppin recommended the project to the board of directors as the Junior Miss is limited to high school seniors and competition on a state level is equalized and gives a better chance for winning scholarships and for the community to have a state winner.

The pageant is conducted during the school year with local girls who are not away at college.

The local Junior Miss will receive her crown, trophy, cash and numerous gifts from local merchants. During her reign, Choppin added, she will be an honored guest at Jaycee banquets, queen of Jaycee youth and sports projects and will compete with other girls her age in Meridian in February for $1,500 in scholarships.

A special meeting for all interested girls and their mothers will be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday, November 20, in the Jaycee home. A movie will be shown, and the program explained. Deadline for entries is November 27.

The fiscal year for membership was also changed from November 1 to October 31 and will now correspond to the calendar year.

The terms of directors remains changing on the third Monday in November.

The managers named to serve for the school bond issue election Tuesday were:

Edwardville - J. W. Wat's, Peace and Returning Officer; Felix Seeger, Walter Dupiquier and Gilmore Favre, managers.

Arlington - John J. Fayard, PRO; Mrs. Morris Garcia, Mrs. Carl S. Gustafson, Selwyn Rutherford.

Court House - Vernon Ladner, PRO; Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Joe Compretta, Leopold Parker.

North Bay - W. T. Johnson, PRO; Mrs. Walter Rausch, Mrs. Rene de Montuzin, Mrs. C. R. Beyer.

Chamber Commerce Elects

Four new members were elected to the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce board of directors, one current member was re-elected and numerous changes in the chamber's constitution and by-laws were approved at the meeting Thursday night at the Coast Electric Power Association Building.

Joseph L. Marochino, manager, Monitor Panel Company, was re-elected for an additional two-year term on the board.

New directors are Lee Hayden, State Farm Insurance agent; John Longo, Southern Frosting Food; Charles Thomas, owner of Baby Drug Store; and Russell Chapman, manager of Hancock Bank, Gainesville branch.

Members remaining on the board with a year to serve are Powell Glass Jr., Mrs. W. P. Ducomb, James DeBlanc and Wilson Wehre.

Included among the amendments to the constitution and by-laws are several modernization changes to bring the workings of the board up to date.

Election of directors will be next year with a final mail ballot in addition to the mail ballot nominations now used. Currently directors are nominated by mail ballot and elected from those present at a general membership meeting.

Next year each member will be able to vote for his choice of directors whether he attends the membership meeting or not.

The size of the board will be increased from nine to 15. The increase is due to the expansion of the board as it is being changed into the constitution by way of an amendment. Dues were raised from $17.50 annually to $25.

The fiscal year for membership was also changed from November 1 to October 31 and will now correspond to the calendar year.

SKIP-ROW COTTON PLANTING IN DELTA

STATE COLLEGE, MISS. — Scientists studying skip-row cotton planting in the Mississippi Delta have found it to be a profitable practice on the better soils. Where there is enough suitable soil to permit it, they recommend the plant-two-skip-two system for the entire allotment.

Fred T. Cooke, Jr., and Arthur M. Heagler, USDA economists working cooperatively with the Delta Branch Experiment Station, interviewed 96 farmers in 1962 and 1963. From their study in eleven Delta counties they reached the following conclusions:

"On better producing soils skip-row planting systems commonly used on Delta farms have an income potential greater than that of a similar amount of alternate cotton planted solid with soybeans on the remaining land, if considered in light of current cotton-soybean price relationships.

"The soil resource situation on any single farm materially affects the skip-row pattern used. If sufficient acreages of suitable soils are available all cotton should be planted 2 x 2. As suitable soils become more restricted, a combination of 2 x 2 and 2 x 1 alone should be used. On sandy soils, the 4 x 4 system is slightly more profitable than 2 x 1, but it requires more land to produce an acre of cotton. Since sandy soils are limited

Lovely little Mickey Heinicke, 4, Denver, Colorado, the 1965 National March of Dimes Child who symbolizes the tens of thousands of youngsters in the U. S. crippled by birth defects, traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 20 to meet with Department Commanders and other officials of the American Legion, an organization which is one of the staunchest supporters of the March of Dimes throughout the country.

She is pictured here with H. B. Monroe of Bloxi, State Commander of the Mississippi American Legion.

Mickey, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinicke, was born with an open spine and had surgical treatment when she was three days old. She can now walk with the aid of full leg braces and crutches. The March of Dimes, which has assisted Mickey, is fighting birth defects through research, patient care and education.

ed on most Delta farms 2 x 1 usually fits better into the farm organization.

Production costs associated with skip-row cotton are considerably higher than those of solid cotton. All skip-row planting systems, other than 4 x 4, materially reduce equipment efficiency in peak demand periods.

"When yield responses of 10 to 20 percent below the average reported for skip-row planting occur, greater farm income could be derived by planting solid cotton and soybean, with current price relationships."

NASA News

HUNTSVILLE, ALA. — Two satellite-structure capsule capsules from the Saturn I SA-7 vehicle have been found after seven weeks adrift in the Atlantic.

Labor from the two capsules providing data on the rocket's operations in flight was in good condition.

SA-7 was launched Saturday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., and the two capsules were supposed to be ejected from the rocket's second stage.

Within 100 miles of the two of the capsules were found in the vicinity of the Bahamas and Eleuthera Island in the Bahamas.

At San Salvador, two beachcombing sailors spotted a capsule floating near the shore. They swam out and retrieved it. At Eleuthera on the same day, a Pan American World Airways employee spotted a capsule floating near the shore.

The recovery of the capsules was a major step in the testing of the Saturn V moon rocket. Most of Marshall's 1.8 billion dollar budget is spent on the major contracts for which Industrial Operations is responsible.

For the past two and a half years, O'Connor has been assigned to the Ballistic Systems Division of the Air Force Systems Command, at Norton Air Force Base, California, where he headed the Mobile Ballistic Missile Missiles Program.

The booster, built at Michoud by the Chrysler Corporation Space Division, left Monday night from the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center where it had undergone static test firing.

Designated S-10, the booster is being returned to Michoud for final checkout and preparation for its shipment to Cape Kennedy.

Three more Saturn I rockets remain to be launched before NASA moves into the Saturn IB launch program.

The S-1V-10, second stage for the final Saturn I, was flown Thursday November 5, from the Douglas Sacramento Test Center for static test firing.

The S-1V-10 is transported by a modified aircraft known as the "Pregnant Guppy." The Guppy will also be used Friday, November 6, to deliver an F-1 engine from California to the Marshall Center.

COFFEE BREAK DOUGHNUTS

A new and quickly-made snack made from doughnuts is called the Spinner. You can use bakers or homemade doughnuts from your freezer or breadbox.

APPLE CHEESE SPINNERS

Cut 6 plain doughnuts in half, crosswise. Spread a tablespoon of applesauce on each half and sprinkle with a tablespoon of Cheddar cheese. Toast on a cookie sheet in a hot oven (400 degrees F) for 5 minutes.

COFFEE SPINNER. For a dozen of these cream together 3/4 cup soft butter, 1 cup confectioner's sugar and 2 tablespoons each of milk and instant coffee. Spread this mixture on split doughnut halves. Top with chopped nuts and toast on a cookie sheet in a hot oven (400 degrees F) for 5 minutes.

PEANUT MARMALADE SPINNERS

Combine an 8-ounce package of cream cheese with 2 tablespoons milk, 3 tablespoons chopped peanuts and one half cup orange marmalade. Liberally cover the split halves of 4 doughnuts. Place on cookie sheet and toast in a hot oven (400 degrees F) for 5 minutes.

OLD ENOUGH!

Not old enough for a novel, a dictionary, an encyclopedia.

But old enough for the Bible!

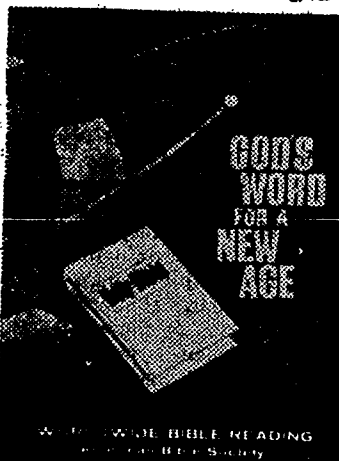

For in these very years before she fully understands its truth, a child learns to respect God's Word. Reverence is born. A sense of the importance of religion develops.

The passages must be short... and sensibly chosen.
Childish but searching questions must be answered.
Mother and Dad will soon discover that explaining Truth to their child deepens their own comprehension.

Take advantage of a parent's most sacred privilege.
Introduce your child to God. Make the Bible part of the family. Participate in and cooperate with the Church's program of religious education.

A child grows spiritually whose parents grow spiritually!

...the first nine months of 1964 was $1,042,251, as compared with $1,010,949 for the similar nine-month period of 1963. Net income for the first nine months of 1964 was $1,042,251, as compared with $1,010,949 for the similar nine-month period of 1963.

The reserve of 42 cents per share was set aside to provide for two contingencies. Of this, 30 cents per share is the amount applicable to the first nine months of 1964, computed in accordance with Federal Power Commission decisions of Jan. 9 and May 14, to be refunded under such orders if they should become fully effective. A similar reserve equal to 12 cents per share applicable to the first nine months of 1963 has been set up. The remaining 12 cents per share placed in reserve for 1964 is to cover a special write off of certain non-productive oil and gas leases.

United's volume of gas sales has increased six percent in 1964 and the market for potash and copper has been strong, Parkes said. Operating expenses, including unit cost of gas purchased, remained well in line, he added.

Construction and development work by Duval Corporation, of which United Gas owns 76 percent, is on schedule, Parkes said. Duval's new copper-molybdenum mine at Mineral Park, Ariz., and its new lanthanite mine and related facilities at Carlsbad, N. M., are nearing completion, and both will be in operation before the end of the year, he said.

UGC Instruments, Inc., currently is establishing sales and service offices in major use areas of the United States, Parkes reported.

MAN, HIGHER IN OVER REBELS

The Bay High Tigers closed out their 1964 grid season on a winning note when they downed the Harrison Central Red Rebels 39-0 Friday night in a Gulf Coast Conference affair at Long Beach.

Coach Lance Lumpkin's Tigers scored in every quarter to record their sixth victory in 10 outings while the loss gave Coach Jerry Gardner's Red Rebels a 1-9 won-loss slate.

Johnny Penton got the Tigers on the scoreboard early in the first quarter by passing 23 yards to Mike Strong. Minutes later Gary Fricke upped the lead by plunging over from five yards out. Larry Stanley Burch added two second quarter touchdowns on runs of three and 20 yards respectively. Single markers were added in the remaining two stanzas on a one-yard plunge by Fricke in the third period and on a one-yard run by Danny Kramley in the fourth.

Fricke and Johnson each ran for one extra point. Coach Lumpkin praised the outstanding line play of Jim Rutherford, Alex Romanoff, Earl Fayard, Bruce Cox, Bruce Daggett, Larry Johnson and Hoogie Dean.

Quarter scores: Bay High 13 12 7 7-39 Harrison Central 0 0 0 0-0. Scoring summary: Bay High touchdowns: Strong, 23-yard pass

STANISLAUS BATTLE TO 4-4 TIE SATURDAY

The Notre Dame Rebels and the St. Stanislaus Rockchaww battled to a 4-4 deadlock in a non-conference football game at Stanislaus Stadium Saturday night.

The tie spoiled the Rockchaww homecoming and perfect record. St. Stanislaus now has seven victories and one tie while Notre Dame has a 6-2-2 won-loss slate.

Quarterback Curtis Matherne put the Rockchaww ahead in the second period when he hit halfback Rusty Judlin with a 66-yard scoring aerial.

Notre Dame battled back in the third stanza to tie the game. After covering a Rockchaww fumble, the Rebels drove to the four from where Joe Fountain pulled his way over.

A 36-yard pass from Clail Rosselli to Jerry Covick was the big gainer in the drive. St. Stanislaus drove from their own 20 to the Notre Dame 35 as Coach Charles McGraw's Rebels will return to action Thanksgiving night when they play the St. Martin Yellow Jackets in the Turkey Bowl at Elbert Municipal Stadium.

The Ocean Springs Jaycoats sponsored event will get underway at 8 o'clock. St. Stanislaus has tentatively scheduled a game with Hancock North Central for this Saturday night at Bay St. Louis.

QUARTER scores:
St. Stanislaus 0 0 0 0-0

JACKSON, MISS. - Some Mississippi counties will soon begin participation in the federal food stamp plan for needy families.

State Welfare Commissioner Evelyn Gandy met with U. S. Department of Agriculture officials last week to set up details of the plan in Mississippi.

Miss Gandy said there was "considerable interest" in the plan in Mississippi.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 7. The United Nations is sponsoring a series of food conservation seminars in the United States, beginning Sunday, November 22, in Washington, D. C., and continuing throughout the country.

Highlighting nationwide services dedicated to the appeal, which seeks $1,073,800 to finance the SOS (Share Our Substance) program for 1965, through which millions of needy persons overseas will receive life-sustaining foods, will be the National Service of Food Distribution in Washington, D. C., at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, 1515 New York Avenue, N. W., Sunday, November 22, 2-3 p. m.

The service is sponsored annually by the Council of Churches of Greater Washington and Church World Service, the overseas relief and rehabilitation agency of the Washington service. The University of Maryland Chapel Choir will sing.

Since its inception the SOS program has accounted for the distribution of more than two and a half billion pounds of foods made available from America's agricultural abundance by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, distributed in more than 40 areas of acute need with funds contributed in the SOS appeal and similar efforts of the churches, and in community appeals of CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) of Church

World Service. Church World Service is a part of the United Nations and the Churches of the World, which operates with the United Nations, Church World Service of the World, and Churches in its various programs.

THANKSGIVING APPEAL FOR WORLD'S HUNGRY

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 7. The United Nations is sponsoring a series of food conservation seminars in the United States, beginning Sunday, November 22, in Washington, D. C., and continuing throughout the country.

Highlighting nationwide services dedicated to the appeal, which seeks $1,073,800 to finance the SOS (Share Our Substance) program for 1965, through which millions of needy persons overseas will receive life-sustaining foods, will be the National Service of Food Distribution in Washington, D. C., at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, 1515 New York Avenue, N. W., Sunday, November 22, 2-3 p. m.

The service is sponsored annually by the Council of Churches of Greater Washington and Church World Service, the overseas relief and rehabilitation agency of the Washington service. The University of Maryland Chapel Choir will sing.

Since its inception the SOS program has accounted for the distribution of more than two and a half billion pounds of foods made available from America's agricultural abundance by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, distributed in more than 40 areas of acute need with funds contributed in the SOS appeal and similar efforts of the churches, and in community appeals of CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) of Church

World Service. Church World Service is a part of the United Nations and the Churches of the World, which operates with the United Nations, Church World Service of the World, and Churches in its various programs.

We, the Commission Council

City of Bay St. Louis

Urge You To VOTE (X) YES for the School Bond Issue

NOVEMBER 24

1. We must continue to provide our children with the best possible Educational Facilities so as to maintain the High Standards of our Public School System. We must not stand idly by and allow our school plant to become inadequate or obsolete.
2. We must realize that the lack of a modern, adequate and accredited public school system would have a serious effect on the potential of our Industrial and economic growth of our community, and would, without any doubt, seriously affect property values to a much greater proportion than the small additional increase in taxes.
3. The tremendous increase in our business index, economic activity, job opportunities, potential industrial growth, which we are presently experiencing would be most seriously affected by the defeat of the Bond Issue. Our City has recently endorsed by an overwhelming vote, a $3,000,000 expenditure for sewage and water facilities and improvements in our Natural Gas System. These improvements are necessary not only to take care of present needs, but to provide first class services for a rapidly growing community. We must continue to move forward.

We the Members of the Commission Council of the City of Bay St. Louis heartily endorse the School Expansion Program and urge every voter in the Municipal Separate School District to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 24th and vote (X) Yes, for the Bond Issue.

For Our Children's Future Vote (x) Yes Nov. 24
